Foreword

The writ for the forty-eighth general election of eighty-nine Members to the Queensland Legislative Assembly was issued on Tuesday 20 June 1995. The writ specified a minimum election period of twenty-six days with Saturday 15 July 1995 scheduled as polling day. The Commission returned the writ on 1st August 1995, some four weeks prior to the date specified for the return of the writ.

The Electoral Act 1992 was amended during the term of the forty-seventh Parliament to include the following provisions invoked for the first time at the 1995 general election:

- (a) a system of partial public funding for election campaigns;
- (b) a system of disclosure of political donations and other income received by candidates, parties and other persons, together with electoral expenditure incurred by them;
- (c) a range of miscellaneous amendments principally of an administrative character;
- (d) discretion for the Commission not to issue non-voter's notices to the aged and infirm; and
- (e) the introduction of a Self-Enforcing Ticketable Offence Notice System (SETONS) for non-voters without a valid and sufficient reason for failing to vote.

The 1995 election was the most closely contested general election in Queensland's 135 years of electoral history. The Labor Party (45 seats) was re-elected for a third term with a majority of one seat (Mundingburra) in which the result was determined by 16 votes. The National Party secured 29 seats, the Liberal Party won 14, while the remaining seat (Gladstone) was won by a non-aligned Independent - the first to do so in Queensland since 1966. The decisions of the Court of Disputed Returns on petitions lodged against outcomes in Greenslopes and Mundingburra are yet to be advised.

The conduct of a statewide general election is a huge undertaking. The State's eighty-nine Returning Officers employ some 7,000 polling officials on a casual-basis to take the votes at 1,672 polling booths at 1,432 separate locations from Thursday Island in the north to Birdsville in the State's south-west. I wish to record my personal thanks and appreciation to all staff for their dedication to the task, in particular, the Commission's Managers - Garry Wiltshire, Dr Glenn Rhodes and Gary Lynch and their staff and the State's Returning Officers listed on Page 7 of this report.

The last possible date for the next Queensland general election is Saturday 24 October 1998.

Explanatory Notes

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 In accordance with its statutory responsibility to promote public awareness of and confidence in the electoral system, the Commission has further enhanced the new format introduced in 1992 for the reporting and presentation of election statistics.
- 1.2 Accordingly, this report includes an explanatory overview of the State electoral system, together with a statewide map illustrating the 1995 election results, individual district maps and profiles now accompany district returns, and additional statewide and district summary tables of voting responses have been included.
- 1.3 In accordance with section 124 of the Electoral Act 1992, the results of preference counts are shown for all districts where a distribution of preferences was possible if not essential to determine the election result.
- 1.4 Both essential and non-essential preferential counts are continued until only two candidates remain in the count thus yielding two-party-preferred (TPP) statistics at an electoral district level for all 89 electoral districts. These statistics are presented in alpha-order by district in summary Table 1.5 and in rank-order by district in the summary of district marginality at Table 1.6.
- 1.5 These additional data and information are intended to provide a more comprehensive account of polling and a more useful documentary record of Queensland's forty-eighth general election for reference and research purposes.

2.0 The Legislative Assembly

- 2.1 Queensland has the distinction of having the only unicameral (single house) State parliament in Australia. The Legislative Assembly has functioned as the single chamber of the Queensland Parliament since 4 July 1922, and has grown from 26 members in 16 Districts in 1860 to 89 MLAs in 1992, each representing a single electoral district.
- 2.2 The framework of the electoral system for the Queensland Legislative Assembly is contained primarily in two acts of Parliament. The Electoral Districts Act 1991, provided for the abolition of the previous zonal system of representation and established the rules for the distribution of boundaries undertaken by the Electoral and Administrative Review Commission (EARC) in 1991. This Act was repealed on proclamation of the Electoral Act 1992 on 19 June 1992.
- 2.3 The Electoral Act 1992 established the guidelines for future redistributions and defines the administrative procedures for the conduct of elections and by-elections to fill vacancies in the Legislative Assembly.
- 2.4 The main distinguishing characteristics of the existing electoral system are as follows:
 - (a) elections for the unicameral legislature must be held every three years;
 - (b) universal adult suffrage of citizens applies (refer s 6 Enrolment Qualifications);
 - (c) the electoral landscape consists of 89 districts each of which elects one Member to the Legislative Assembly;
 - (d) enrolment and voting are compulsory. Voting is by secret ballot;
 - (e) optional preferential voting (OPV) was reintroduced as the method of voting in 1992 following 30 years of compulsory preferential voting; and
 - (f) the first distribution of boundaries under the Electoral Districts Act 1991, provided for a weightage equivalent to 2% of the area in five districts in excess of 100,000 Km²; and
 - (g) opportunity exists to dispute the results.

3.0 Conduct of Elections

3.1 The Electoral Commission Queensland, a statutory authority established by proclamation of the Electoral Act 1992, is the agency responsible for the administration of the State's electoral laws.

3.2 The Commission's mission is: To maintain the integrity of Queensland's electoral system. The Commission's corporate goals are:

- (a) to impartially administer Queensland's electoral laws;
- (b) to conduct free and democratic parliamentary and industrial ballots efficiently and effectively; and
- (c) to promote Queenslanders' informed participation and confidence in the electoral system.

3.3 The functions and powers of the Electoral Commission are specified under s 8(1)-(4) of the Electoral Act 1992 as follows:

Section 8

- (1)
 - (a) perform functions that are permitted or required to be performed by or under this Act, other than functions that a specified person or body, or the holder of a specified office, is expressly permitted or required to perform; and
 - (b) conduct a review of the appropriateness of the number of electoral districts whenever the Minister requests it, in writing, to conduct such a review, and report to the Minister the results of the review; and
 - (c) consider, and report to the Minister on:
 - (i) electoral matters referred to it by the Minister; and
 - (ii) such other electoral matters as it considers appropriate; and
 - (d) promote public awareness of electoral matters by conducting education and information programs and in other ways; and
 - (e) provide information and advice on electoral matters to the Legislative Assembly, the Government, departments and government authorities; and
 - (f) conduct and promote research into electoral matters and other matters that relate to its functions; and
 - (g) publish material on matters that relate to its functions; and
 - (h) perform any other function that are conferred on it by or under another Act.
 - (2) The Commission (the "Queensland Commission") may perform any of its functions under subsection (1)(d) to (g) in conjunction with the Australian Electoral Commission.
 - (3) The Governor may arrange with the Governor-General for the performance by the Australian Electoral Commission of any functions on behalf of the Queensland Commission.
 - (4) The Commission may do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.
- 3.4 In addition to its full-time State office personnel, the Commission maintains a statewide network of 89 district Returning Officers employed by retainer on a part-time basis to administer routine electoral procedures and manage electoral events locally as they occur (refer Table 1). An additional 7000 casual employees are engaged to meet the challenge of conducting a large scale electoral episode such as a general election or referendum.

4.0 Electoral Awareness Campaign

- 4.1 Under s 8(1)(d) of the Electoral Act 1992, the Commission has a statutory responsibility to 'promote public awareness of electoral matters by conducting education and information programs and in other ways'. This obligation is discharged during an election period through the conduct of a statewide multi-media electoral information and awareness campaign triggered by the issue of the writ.
- 4.2 The corporate objective of the 1995 campaign was to maximise the distribution, reach, impact and cost-effectiveness of all communications media utilised during the election period. The specific performance objectives for the campaign were:
- to promote and encourage the enrolment and re-enrolment of electors;
 - to publicise voting arrangements and polling procedures to enable electors to discharge their rights and obligations at the election;
 - to promote informed participation in the election among those qualified to vote;
 - to reduce the incidence of informal voting at the election; and
 - to ensure public confidence is maintained both in the electoral system and in the capacity of the Electoral Commission to discharge its statutory functions.

- 4.3 The campaign for the 1995 general election was developed by the Research and Education Division within the Commission in association with the Commission's consultants, a consortium comprised of Neville Jeffress Advertising, AIS Media, Rod Baines and Associates and Wilson Consulting.
- 4.4 The centrepiece of the 1995 campaign was an Election QuickGuide distributed by Australia Post to 1.2 million households throughout Queensland. This comprehensive guide contained essential information for electors on when, where and how to vote pre-poll or on election day. The guide contained individual maps of the 89 electoral districts showing the location of polling booths, names of candidates, and close of roll figures.
- 4.5 In addition, television, radio and press were used to deliver short call-to-action reminders of critical dates and times, and to promote public interest in the QuickGuide. Both the creative and strategic approaches utilised in the 1995 campaign were determined by preferences expressed by randomly selected client groups and by market-testing of proposed campaign tactics months before the election.

5.0 Electoral District Boundaries

- 5.1 The 1992 and the 1995 general elections were conducted on the electoral district boundaries determined by the Electoral and Administrative Review Commission (EARC) on 27 November 1991 under the Electoral Districts Act 1991 (repealed by Electoral Act 1992).
- 5.2 EARC considered the following matters in preparing the distribution as required by section 3.3 of the Electoral Districts Act 1991:
 - (a) the quota of electors (20,372);
 - (b) a margin of allowance whereby the quota may be departed from by not more than one-tenth more or one-tenth less; and
 - (c) in respect of a proposed electoral district of at least 100,000 square kilometres in area, the quota may be departed from in that case to an extent greater than one tenth less. Subject to these matters, in determining the boundaries of new electoral districts, EARC considered:
 - (a) community of interests within the proposed electoral district - including economic, social and regional interests; and
 - (b) means of communication and travel within the proposed electoral district;
 - (c) the physical features of the proposed electoral district;
 - (d) demographic trends in the State with a view to ensuring, as far as practicable, that the number of electors enrolled for districts would remain within a 10% tolerance from the average district enrolment; and
 - (e) objections and comments on objections to the Commission's proposed electoral distribution under section 3.6.
- 5.3 EARC's determination distributed the State into 89 single-member electoral districts with a range of enrolments after rural weightage from 18,425 (Hervey Bay) to 22,399 (Mount Coot-tha) and an average district enrolment of 20,372. The distribution also re-named 31 of the 89 districts. Districts range in size from 13.55 Km² (Greenslopes) to 343,977 Km² (Gregory).
- 5.4 Provisions relating to future redistributions have been incorporated in Part 3 of the Electoral Act 1992. Section 36 of the Act specifies the circumstances which will trigger future redistributions as follows:
 - (a) if the Act is amended to change the number of electoral districts (s 37); or
 - (b) one year elapses after three general elections or 7.5 years elapse following the last redistribution, whichever is the later (s 38); or
 - (c) if one third or more of the 89 electoral districts become malapportioned for 2 months in a row (s 39).

6.0 Qualifications for Enrolment

- 6.1 Following recommendations from EARC Queensland entered into a joint electoral roll arrangement with the Commonwealth on 4 November, 1991. In addition, the Electoral Act 1992 brought the State's enrolment qualifications in line with the Commonwealth.
- 6.2 Qualifications for enrolment appear at s 64 of the Electoral Act 1992. A person is entitled to be enrolled to vote at elections for Members of the Queensland Legislative Assembly if the person has attained the age of 18 years and is:
- (a) an Australian citizen; or
 - (b) (other than an Australian citizen) a British subject whose name was, on 25 January 1984, on the roll for a federal electoral division; or (for State enrolment only) was entitled to be enrolled on the State electoral roll on 31 December, 1991; and
 - (c) lives in the electoral district and has lived in it for the last month (s 64 (1)).
- 6.3 A person is disqualified from enrolment and from voting if the person:
- (a) by reason of unsound mind is incapable of understanding the nature and significance of enrolment and voting; or
 - (b) has been convicted and is under sentence for an offence punishable under the law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory by imprisonment for 5 years or longer; or
 - (c) has been convicted of treason or treachery and has not been pardoned.
- 6.4 A number of special provisions exist for electors in particular circumstances to enrol to vote including:
- (a) Provisional Enrolment
A 17 year-old who would qualify for enrolment if 18 years of age can apply for provisional enrolment. The person's name will automatically be entered on a roll for the district for which enrolment is claimed the day that person attains the age of 18 years.
 - (b) Enrolled Voters Leaving Australia
A person who is enrolled on the electoral roll, and intends to cease to reside in Australia but intends to resume residing in Australia within a period of 3 years from that date may apply to be registered as an 'overseas voter'.
 - (c) Itinerant Electors
A person who is in Australia but not residing within any district (and is therefore not entitled to be enrolled for any district) may apply, in writing, to be registered as an 'itinerant voter'.
 - (d) Prisoners
If not a disqualified person, the elector is entitled to remain on the roll for the district in which he/ she was enrolled before serving the prison sentence.
 - (e) Silent Enrolment
Where a person considers having his/her address shown on the roll would place his/her (or family members') personal safety at risk, application may be made for enrolment as a 'silent elector'. A silent elector's address details are not shown on the roll.
 - (f) Special Postal Voters
An elector whose real place of living is not within 15 Km of a polling booth, may apply for enrolment as a special postal voter. Once an election is announced ballot papers are automatically despatched to these electors for voting by post.

6.5 Table (3) shows the close of roll figures for the 1995 general election. District enrolments ranged from a low of 14,289 in Warrego (a weighted district) to a high of 28,847 in Kallangur. Average district enrolment at the close of roll on Saturday 24 June 1995 was 22,556. After allowances are made for the five weighted districts, twenty-one (21) or 23.60% of the eighty-nine districts deviated by more than ten per cent from the mean (22,556); fifteen districts above and six (including Mount Isa, a weighted district) below.

7.0 Nominations and Candidates

- 7.1 A person may be nominated as a candidate and may be elected as a Member of the Queensland Legislative Assembly if the person is:
- an adult;
 - an Australian citizen;
 - enrolled on the electoral roll for any electoral district; and is
 - not a disqualified person as defined under the Constitution Act 1867, Officials in Parliament Act 1896, and/or the Electoral Act 1992 (including an undischarged bankrupt, a prisoner or person subject to a periodic detention order, or a member of the Commonwealth Parliament).
- 7.2 Candidates may be nominated by a registered officer of a registered political party or six or more electors enrolled for the district concerned, none of whom has previously nominated a candidate for the election.
- 7.3 Candidates must lodge a deposit of $250 which is refunded if the candidate withdraws, is elected, or secures more than 4% of the total first preference votes at the election.
- 7.4 A total of 290 candidates nominated for election in 1995 (33 fewer than the 323 candidates in 1992). The range of district nominations was from two (in 22 districts) to seven candidates (in one district - Barron River). The reduction in the number of candidates was a function, in part, of the Coalition Parties' agreement of 28 March 1994, not to run three-cornered contests in seats held by sitting members without the approval of both parties.
- 7.5 A total of 236 or 81.38% of the 290 candidates were endorsed by the six registered political parties as follows: A.L.P.(89), NPA-Q (44), Qld Lib (46), CAP (8), Democrats (21) and The Greens (28). The remaining 54 candidates stood as independents or were endorsed by unregistered political parties. Seventy-four (25.52%) candidates were women.
- 7.6 The candidates standing for election in each of the 89 electoral districts at the 1995 election are shown in Table (4) below.

8.0 Register of Political Parties

- 8.1 Part 5 of the Electoral Act 1992 makes provision for the registration of political parties. Once registered, parties are entitled to have their party name or registered abbreviation printed on the ballot paper adjacent to the names of endorsed candidates.
- 8.2 To qualify for registration under the Electoral Act 1992 a political party must:
- (a) have at least one member in the Queensland Legislative Assembly; or
 - (b) if not already a Queensland Parliamentary Party, have a minimum membership of 500 electors.
- 8.3 Applications for membership must be on the prescribed form, include the party name and preferred abbreviation if any, set out the name and address of a registered officer, and include a copy of the party's Constitution.
- 8.4 The following six political parties were registered prior to the 1995 general election:

Name	Abbreviation	Date of Registration
Liberal Party of Australia (Queensland Division)	Queensland Liberals (Qld Lib also used here)	31 July 1992
Australian Labor Party (State of Queensland)	A.L.P.	14 August 1992
National Party of Australia - Queensland	Queensland Nationals (NPA-Q also used here)	14 August 1992
Confederate Action Party of Australia	CAP	28 January 1993
Queensland Greens	The Greens	6 May 1994
Australian Democrats (Queensland Division)	Democrats (Dem also used here)	5 June 1995

9.0 Funding and Disclosure

- 9.1 Following EARC's (1992) recommendation and the report by the Parliamentary Committee for Electoral and Administrative Review (1993), the Electoral Act 1992 was amended in December 1994, to incorporate provisions relating to the partial funding of elections and financial disclosure by candidates, parties and other persons.
- 9.2 The provisions, incorporated in the Schedule to the Electoral Act 1992, are based on those contained in the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 and include some of the amendments enacted by the Commonwealth in June 1995.
- 9.3 Election funding provisions allow for the reimbursement of election campaign costs to eligible political parties and to independent candidates who give notification on their nomination form of an intention to claim for funding.
- 9.4 The election funding rate for the 1995 general election was $1.08203 per eligible vote. An eligible political party must be registered, have notified its intention to claim by 31 December of the year preceding the election, and have endorsed candidates who gained more than four percent of the formal first preference votes in the district in which they stood. Independent candidates can claim funding if they gained more than four percent of the formal first preference votes in the district in which they stood.

- 9.5 The financial disclosure provisions require annual returns by registered political parties and associated entities of all amounts received and expenditure incurred by or on behalf of the party or entity during a financial year and details of outstanding debts at 30 June. All candidates in an election must furnish returns of gifts received and of electoral expenditure; persons other than registered parties, associated entities or candidates (ie third parties) who incur expenditure for a political purpose and received gifts must also furnish returns detailing those gifts; and a return of electoral expenditure must be furnished by 'third parties' who incurred electoral expenditure during an election campaign.
- 9.6 Candidates may appoint an agent to furnish the returns on their behalf. The Commission received 93 Notices of Appointment for this purpose by close of nominations for the 1995 general election. The remaining candidates are deemed to be their own agent for the election. Election funding claims are to be made within 20 weeks after polling day, ie by 4 December 1995. Candidates and third parties' returns are to be lodged with the Commission by 30 October 1995. All claims and returns for the 1995 general election will be available for public inspection at the Electoral Commission's office from 2 January 1996.

10.0 Voting Methods

- 10.1 Voting methods for the Legislative Assembly have been altered substantially on a number of occasions since the first Queensland Parliament of 26 Members, representing 16 districts was elected in 1860.
- 10.2 The first ten general elections held between 1860 and 1892 used a first-past-the-post method of voting. A form of optional preferential voting (OPV) was introduced at the 1893 election and was used at nineteen elections until first-past-the-post voting was reintroduced for the seven elections held between 1942 and 1962. Compulsory preferential voting was the method of election at the ten general elections held between 1962 and 1989.
- 10.3 The reintroduction of optional preferential voting (OPV) was recommended by the Electoral and Administrative Review Commission (EARC) and endorsed by Parliamentary resolution on 11 April 1991, seventy (70) votes to (9). The 1992 election was the first election in 50 years conducted under OPV and followed 30 years of compulsory preferential voting in Queensland.
- 10.4 Optional preferential voting extends electors' opportunities to exercise the franchise by adding two additional options to the preferential voting system so that a valid vote may be cast by:
- (a) Plumping for one candidate (ie. expressing a single primary preference for one candidate only, leaving all other squares blank);
 - or (b) Expressing a partial distribution of preferences (ie expressing preferences for some but not all candidates on the ballot paper);
 - or (c) Expressing a full set of preferences (ie marking the ballot paper as required under a compulsory preferential voting system).
- 10.5 Evidence from ballot paper sample surveys conducted by the Electoral Commission following the 1992 election suggests that nearly one quarter of voters (possibly 400,000 voters statewide) chose to cast a single preference for one candidate, some four percent expressed a partial distribution of preferences, and a substantial majority of electors (73%) exercised the option of voting in accordance with previous practices by indicating a full set of preferences.

- 10.6 The reduction in the rate of informal voting from 3.0% in 1989 to 2.25% in 1992, and the further reduction to 1.75% at the 1995 election, can be attributed to a number of factors including the relaxation of formality criteria and the simplification of voting methods following the introduction of optional preferential voting in 1992.

11.0 Types of Voting

- 11.1 To ensure the maximum opportunity for electors to cast a vote at a Legislative Assembly election, a range of voting services is provided during an election period. Table (5) shown on the following page is a comparative analysis of vote types at the 1992 and 1995 general elections while the summary Table (1.2) at Page 25 includes a summary of vote types by district at the 1995 general election. The format of the electoral district voting returns presented here includes separate listings for each of these vote types as follows:
- (a) Declaration (Postal) Votes
These are votes cast by electors who for a variety of reasons cannot attend a polling booth on polling day. Electors more than eight Km from a polling booth, those working, travelling, ill or disabled, are entitled to apply for a postal vote.
 - (b) Declaration (Pre-Poll in Person) Votes
These are votes cast in person prior to polling day by electors who for a variety of reasons are unable to vote on polling day.
 - (c) Interstate and Overseas Votes
Electors interstate or overseas at the time of the election can vote either by post or by attending Queensland Government Travel Centres, interstate electoral offices or offices in London, Tokyo, Hong Kong, or Tai Pei.
 - (d) Electoral Visit Votes
These are votes taken by Issuing Officers who visit electors who because of illness, disability or advanced pregnancy, or because they are caring for such persons, cannot attend a polling booth on polling day.
 - (e) Declared Institution Votes
These are votes cast by patients, residents or inmates of institutions (hospitals, nursing homes, retirement hostels) declared as mobile polling booths for the purpose of the election.
 - (f) Ordinary Votes
These are votes cast by electors on polling day in the district for which they are enrolled.
 - (g) Polling Day Absent Votes
These are votes cast by electors on polling day outside the district for which they are enrolled.
 - (h) Declaration (Unenrolled) Votes
These are votes cast by electors on polling day in the district in which they believe they are enrolled but whose names do not appear on the roll or whose names have already been crossed off the roll.
 - (i) Remote Area Mobile Polling Votes
There are votes cast by electors at 14 polling places on 13 Islands in the Torres Strait. The district return for Cook provides a separate listing.

1995 Two Party Preferred data for Gladstone are based on a special throw of preferences that discounts the results of the Independent candidate.

Note: Districts shaded were won on preferences.

District Status is determined as follows:

Marginal Seats - incumbent party obtained less than 56% of TPP vote

Fairly Safe Seats - incumbent obtained between 56% and 60% of TPP vote

Safe Seats - incumbent obtained over 60% of TPP vote

Table (1.7) Summary Statistics 1995 Queensland General Election: Preference Distributions by Electoral District

This table summarises the distribution of preferences and rates of exhaustion of registered party and independent candidates excluded during the full preferential count. The table is useful for comparing results between electoral districts and between elections.

The table shows in percentage terms, the results of a full distribution of preferences in the sixty-seven districts where more than two candidates stood for election. In forty-two (62.69%) of these cases seats were won outright on primary votes and preferences were distributed for information purposes only.

As in the illustrated example below, candidates are listed by party affiliation (other than the first candidate excluded) across the page in ascending order of votes received so that the winning candidate is shown last.

Candidates are listed down column (1) in order of their exclusion during the full preferential count.

The percentage of 'Live Votes' (column 2) shown for each excluded candidate is that candidate's share of the total number of votes remaining in the count before exclusion. It would be misleading to add these column (2) figures together, as if they were all percentages of primary votes, because there would be some double counting.

The remaining columns (3,4,5,6) are read across the page to show the percentage distribution, count-by-count, of each excluded candidate's preferences to those candidates remaining in the count.

The 'Exhausted' column (7) shows the rate at which each excluded candidate's votes exhausted at each preferential count. A candidate's votes never exhaust unless that candidate is excluded. Under OPV, votes exhaust for one of two reasons:

- either the voter has plumped or expressed a partial distribution of preferences (that is voted only '1', or '1' and '2', in a contest between, say, four candidates. These votes exhaust after the first and second preferences respectively);
- or a voter makes an error in sequencing (for example '1', '2', '3', '3' - this vote exhausts after the second preference because of indecision at the third preference).

The horizontal line (8) indicates the count at which the winning MLA was actually determined.

4th Count :	Greens	8.7%		33.9%	32.4%	33.7%

In the example above for the district of Albert, which was contested by five candidates, three candidates were excluded during the full preferential count: two Independents and one Green (column 1).

O'Connor, the first candidate excluded, received 2.1% of the primary vote (column 2) and his preferences were distributed on the second count: 43.9% to the second Independent (column 3); 9.3% to the Greens (column 4); 7.0% to the A.L.P. (column 5); and 14.4% to the NPA-Q (column 6); with 25.4% votes exhausted (column 7).

Lucht, the second Independent excluded, received a total of 5.1% of votes remaining after the second count (including preferences from O'Connor) and the column entries are again read across the page to show the distribution of her preferences and rate of exhaustion on the third count.

The Green candidate received 8.7% of votes remaining after the third count and preferences were distributed and votes exhausted on the fourth count as indicated. The NPA-Q candidate (Baumann) won the district of Albert on the fourth count (horizontal line).

Guide to Statistical Returns

The 1995 Statistical Returns for Queensland's 89 electoral districts are presented alphabetically at pp. 47 to 225. A two page format is followed for each district.

On each left-hand page, district tables display the first preference count of ordinary and declaration votes in absolute (number) and relative (%) terms. Ordinary votes are recorded by candidate by polling booth. Declaration and pre-poll votes (postal, unenrolled, pre-poll, absent, electoral visit, declared institution and remote area mobile polling) are recorded by candidate. Total formal, informal and total votes are also shown for each booth and each category of declaration and pre-poll votes.

The results of distributions of preferences are also shown for the sixty-seven districts contested by more than two candidates. In twenty-five of these cases it was essential to distribute preferences to determine the winner. For the remainder, preferences were distributed for information purposes only. Preferences are fully distributed, often beyond the point where a winner has been determined, until only two candidates remain in the count, thus yielding two-party preferred statistics at a district level.

Both district tables are read across the page. The results of the winning candidate are shaded.

First Preference Votes Polled for each Candidate at each Polling Booth

Candidates are identified by registered party and are listed across the table in draw order. Candidate vote percentages are calculated to the base of total formal votes. The remaining percentage columns are calculated to the base of total votes.

Distribution of Preferences for Information Only

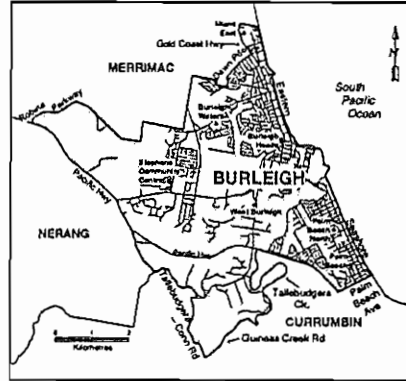

Candidate(s) are listed down the first column in order of exclusion. The Candidate vote % column is calculated to the base of votes remaining in the count. The Exhausted % column is calculated to the base of total votes.

For all districts other than Gladstone, this full distribution of preferences yields a two-party preferred (TPP) vote (defined as the division of votes between Labor and the Nationals/Liberals). A special throw of preferences was conducted for Gladstone that discounts the results of the winning independent candidate (see Page 227).

On each right-hand page of District Returns supplementary information is presented: an electoral district map; geographical data; summary statistics, including 1992-1995 comparisons; historical data; and demographic data of voters, non-voters and total electors.

The map shows electoral district boundaries, names of adjacent districts and polling booths.

Geographical data includes geo-classification, district area, and overlapping Federal electoral divisions and local government areas.

Summary Statistics record 1995 seat status by registered party and change from 1992, and wins on primaries or preferences (also the count). The 1992-1995 results are compared across a range of attributes.

History includes the year the district name was first used, periods when parliamentary parties held the seat, and the name, party identification and period of representation of the current Member.

Demographic Profile displays data drawn from the electoral roll and results from the scanning process used to mark-back the rolls following the election. Data include gender, occupation and age (electoral roll) of 1995 voters and non-voters (scanning). Data are presented at aggregate level. Just as voting statistics, whether aggregated at booth or district level, describe collective responses of electors, these socio-economic data describe community characteristics of the whole electorate. While the group characteristics of those who voted are known, the way in which individuals voted can, of course, never be known.

EXHAUSTED VOTES: These are the votes of excluded candidates which show only one preference or a partial distribution of preferences (eg. 1, 2, 3 for example, in a district where say 5 candidates stood). These votes are counted to the preference indicated whereupon they 'exhaust' and go no further.

FULL DISTRIBUTION OF PREFERENCES: The result after preferences have been allocated to the last two candidates remaining in the count (often beyond the point where a winner has been determined). See TPP.

GEOCLASS: Classifies districts into one of four categories:
